

War Department
city of Austin, Jan. 200

Dear Sirs: An affidavit is on file in this Department stating that said man is the husband of the heir of the deceased General McDonald Lewis, and that legal representation of said deceased son is entitled to receive whatever may be due him and demanded by the Government of Spain.

No affidavit is attached
since a ship blockade

is now in effect, and it will be necessary to have a copy of the affidavit sent to the Consul at the earliest opportunity. I will do my best to get it to you as soon as possible. Please let me know if you require any further information.
